CHG Healthcare Services Appoints Information Technology Chief

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah (August 31, 2006)—CHG Healthcare Services, one of the nation's oldest and largest healthcare staffing firms, has named Michael Peterson as chief information officer and vice president of information technology.

A demonstrated IT leader, Peterson most recently served as vice president and chief information officer for American Express Incentive Services in St. Louis, Missouri. Prior to that he served in various IT leadership roles for other divisions of American Express, as well as with the J.C. Penney Company, The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, the U.S. Forest Service, and Anderson Lumber.

CHG Healthcare's president and CEO, Michael Weinholtz, commented, "We are thrilled to have such an accomplished IT professional join our company. The addition of Mike to our senior management team is consistent with our commitment to investing in great people and improved processes to facilitate our continued growth."

Added Peterson, "I'm delighted to join such a successful and rapidly growing company. CHG Healthcare is committed to being at the forefront of technology and I look forward to ensuring that as the company continues to grow, our technology capabilities will keep pace."

Peterson holds an MBA with an emphasis in finance and technology from Westminster College in Salt Lake City, Utah. He received his Bachelor of Science degree in computer information systems from Weber State University in Ogden, Utah.
