FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CHG Healthcare Services Announces June 26 Ribbon Cutting Honored Guests to include Utah Gov. Huntsman, Holladay Mayor Webb and Utah business leaders

SALT LAKE CITY (June 22, 2007) – CHG Healthcare Services, one of the oldest and largest healthcare staffing firms in the United States, will hold a June 26 ribbon cutting and open house for its new office building at Millrock Park in Holladay, Utah, which will house the company's corporate headquarters and Salt Lake operating divisions. The dedication ceremony will start at 10 a.m. in the front courtyard of the building located at 6440 South Millrock Drive (6200 South/Wasatch Blvd.)

Serving as Master of Ceremonies will be CHG's President and CEO Michael Weinholtz. Honored Guests include Utah Gov. Jon M. Huntsman, Jr., City of Holladay Mayor Dennis R. Webb, Salt Lake County Economic Development Director Dale Carpenter, as well as other business and civic leaders from the Salt Lake valley. With the addition of CHG employees and their families, the attendee count is anticipated to exceed 800 people. The media is also invited to attend.

"We are thrilled to celebrate the grand opening of our new corporate campus, and to dedicate it to the 1,200 CHG employees whom have fueled our company's growth and made this move possible," commented Mr. Weinholtz.

CHG currently employs more than 600 people at its Salt Lake area headquarters and nearly 1,200 people at its nine U.S. locations. The company has been a part of the Salt Lake business community since 1979 and is proud to be a Cornerstone Partner of the United Way of Salt Lake.

The ribbon cutting will coincide with CHG's annual Employee Appreciation Week, which is celebrated at the company's nine offices located nationwide. The weeklong festivities honor CHG's No. 1 core value: Putting People First. Employee Appreciation Week features fun and educational events, including a Wellness Fair on June 26 immediately following the dedication ceremony.

Millrock Park is a 490,000-square-foot, master-planned business campus located on 22 acres in one of the most desired locations in the Salt Lake valley. Mr. Weinholtz cited Millrock's superior location, accessibility and quality as core considerations for the move. CHG will initially occupy approximately 117,000 square feet of the new building, with the option to eventually occupy all 155,000 square feet.

This month, CHG is featured in Utah Business magazine for its "Most Admired Companies" honor. The company is also a multi-year winner of MountainWest Capital Network's "Utah 100" awards, in both the "Top Revenue Growth" company and "Fastest Growing" categories. CHG is also ranked 3rd on the "Top U.S. Healthcare Staffing Providers" list published by Staffing Industry Analysts, Inc., for the second consecutive year.
