CompHealth Physician Search Division Announces Strategic Changes to Leadership Team

Salt Lake City, Utah (February 14, 2006)—CompHealth, a CHG Healthcare Services company, announced today the following strategic changes to the leadership team of its physician search division, which provides permanent placement services for medical doctors of all specialties:

Jeff Freeman has been appointed division President. Freeman has been with CompHealth since 1993 and has held various management positions. Most recently, he served as vice president of the CompHealth physician search division's Salt Lake City, Utah office.

Chad Bounous has been promoted to Vice President over the division's Salt Lake City office. Bounous joined CompHealth in 2002 and most recently acted as a director in the physician search division, where he has been instrumental in the growth of the Salt Lake City office.

Michael Yao joins the division as Vice President of the Rosemont, Illinois office. He has 16 years of medical staffing experience that includes temporary and permanent placement services.

“These three individuals will provide the CompHealth physician search division the opportunity for continued growth and industry leadership in this dynamic, growth-oriented marketplace,” commented Don DeCamp, chief operating officer for CHG Healthcare (formerly CompHealth Group).

The CompHealth physician search division places physicians in hospitals, physician practices, and healthcare organizations in all 50 states. The division operates out of four offices around the country including Salt Lake City, Utah, Fort Lauderdale, Florida, Norwalk, Connecticut, and Rosemont, Illinois.
