Weatherby Locums Promotes Mike DePaolis

CARY, N.C. (November 3, 2009) – CHG Healthcare Services, one of the oldest and largest healthcare staffing firms in the United States, has announced the promotion of Mike DePaolis to vice president for one of its physician staffing companies, Weatherby Locums.

Mr. DePaolis will oversee business operations in Weatherby Locums' Cary, N.C. office, with responsibility for directing and managing the operations of the division's sales support organization. He previously served as the director of sales for the internal medicine subspecialties and oncology teams.

"We've had the good fortune of attracting and retaining highly qualified leaders," said Weatherby Locums president Pat Kennedy. "Mike brings tremendous experience with new business development, enterprise account management and relationship management to our leadership team. Additionally, his ability to hire and develop both consultants and leaders ensures our future fiscal performance and growth. His outstanding interpersonal skills coupled with his commitment to the Weatherby Locums performance-driven mentality has made Mike a leader among an already outstanding leadership team."

"I'm thrilled to be given the opportunity to grow within the CHG organization and honored to be part of such a dynamic, people-centric and performance-driven culture. I look forward to continuing to contribute to the exponential growth the Weatherby Locums division has experienced," said Mr. DePaolis.

Prior to joining Weatherby, Mr. DePaolis was senior director for Acsys, Inc. He has more than 17 years of sales leadership experience within the staffing industry.
